

ILLUSTRATIONS TO POPULAR NOVELS.

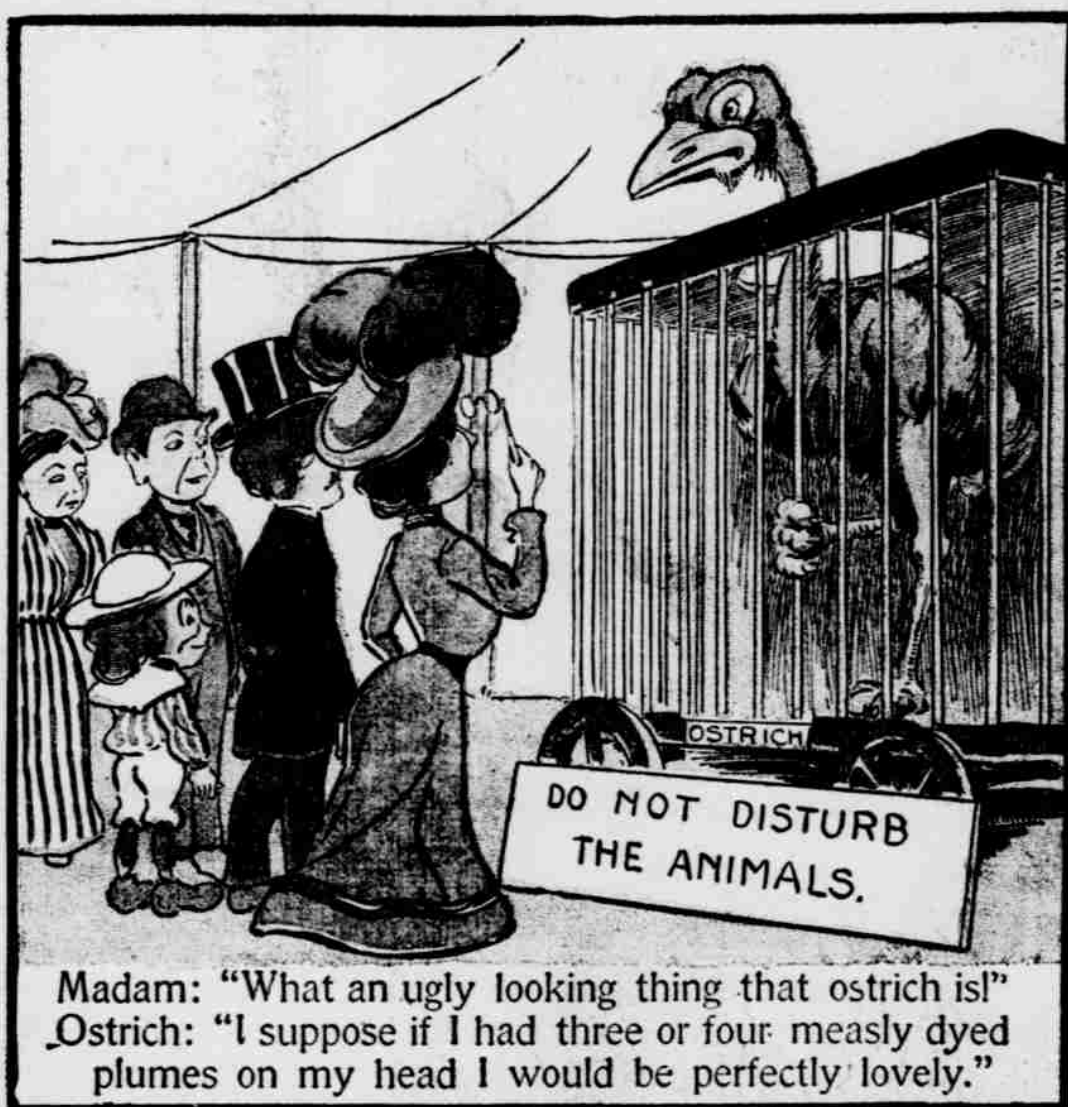

"Her scornful glance cut through him like a knife."

"Still holding his head high in the air, Gilbert Vavasour strode haughtily from the room."

A Bicyclist on a Rainy Day.

Madam: "What an ugly looking thing that ostrich is!"
Ostrich: "I suppose if I had three or four measly dyed plumes on my head I would be perfectly lovely."

Loyal Cracksman: "I may not be much of a soldier, but I do as much drilling as any of them."

1. Brown: "Mr. Branigan, I want a pair of checked trousers, and I want them quick. Just cut them out by these old ones."

2. Mr. Branigan: "I'd better make them exactly like the old ones."

3. Brown: "Look here, Branigan, what did you put these patches in my pants for?"

4. Mr. Branigan: "Just to make them like the old ones, to be sure."

FROM THE HUMORIST'S POINT OF VIEW.